AT THE MAJESTIC.

In the story of "Blackmail," a special Metro production which comes to the Majestic theatre today for two days, that seamy side of life which has such a wired attraction for the other half plays an important part. The screen version is

When May Robson comes to the Burtis theatre, Davenport, tomorrow and Saturday in her new comedy, "Nobody's Fool," from the pen of Alan Dale, one of the best known dramatic critics in the country, the theatre-goers who look forward every season to Miss Robson's visit will be more than delighted, for in the role of Mrs. Bixby, she has the best part she has had since the days of her wonderful success, "The Bejuvenation of Aunt Mary."

In "Nobody's Fool," Mr. Dale has given the public a glimpse of May Robson at home.

IMPORTANCE OF RIGHT METHODS IN HUMANE WORK

Omaha, Neb.-The importance of applying business methods to the management of humane societies was pointed out to the American Humane association convention here by H. L. Roberts, secretary and superntendent of the Anti-Cruelty society of Chicago.
"I think it is a perfectly safe the average humane society, and AT THE CONONIAL.

A matinee for ladies only will be given at the Colonial on Friday afternoon by Miss Jean Dawn, the mental wonder, who abswers any and all kinds of questions.

After the first performance all men will be excluded from the audience and Miss Dawn will answer the ladies questions. By all the men leaving the theatre Miss Dawn will answer the ladies questions. By all the men leaving the theatre and miss Dawn will tell you if your husband is true and will solve any problem that may be confronting you at the present time. Simply write your question on a piece of plain white paper either at home or at the theatre and Miss Dawn or at the average humane societies I mean societies, animal rescue leagues, humane societies and other similar organizations, are not conducted on husiness principles I mean the principles that must govern the management of any commercial enterprise, if it is to be a success, whether the average humane societies I mean societies I mean societies and other similar organizations, are not conducted on husiness principles, and by humane societies I mean societies.
